Listen, sis, we've takin' awful chance in expectin' very much for Christmas through a little gas grate chimney like this. Well, say, bub, maybe Santa carries a chimney stretcher with him, huh?

HARDING MAY NAME WOMAN TO CABINET

It is thought that President-elect Harding will ask Congress to create a Department of Education. If so, it is rumored that Mrs. Harriet T. Upton of Warren, O., will be asked to head the new department. If appointed she will be the first woman in the United States ever named to a cabinet position.

SAVE PENNIES—WASTE DOLLARS

Some users of printing save pennies by getting inferior work and lose dollars through lack of advertising value in the work they get. Printers as a rule charge very reasonable prices, for none of them get rich, although nearly all of them work hard.

Moral: Give your printing to a good printer and save money.

BIG EGG YIELD

"From a small flock of hens I now get 20 to 25 eggs per day, whereas before giving them Dr. LeGear's Poultry Prescription, I only received three or four. Its cost has been repaid to me over and over." So writes Mrs. J. W. Montgomery, of Tunnell Hill, Ga.

You should increase your yield now, while prices are high, through Dr. LeGear's Poultry Prescription. It is a tonic which builds up the hen's strength and vitality and stimulates the egg-producing organs.

For 28 years Dr. LeGear has been recognized as America's foremost Expert Poultry Breeder and Veterinarian. Any time your poultry or stock are ailing, it will pay you to get the proper Dr. LeGear Remedy from your dealer. It must give satisfaction or your dealer will refund your money.

Tell the world you are tired of life and the world will get tired of you.

Women Chosen for Public Service in West

Oklahoma, with a Congresswoman in the Sixty-seventh Congress; Kansas and Texas with women as state superintendents of public instruction; Missouri with nine county treasurers out of thirteen women elected to county offices and Michigan possessing two women sheriffs, take the leading places of distinction on the suffrage question in the Central West as the result of the recent nation-wide election.

Women have entered nearly every field of public service, from juror and school trustee to member of the National House of Representatives, and following last month's election, Miss Alice Robertson, of Muskogee, Okla., "past sixty," a successful restaurant proprietor, and, incidentally, an opponent of woman suffrage, will take her seat as the second woman ever sent to the National Congress.

Missouri showed the greatest liking for women officeholders, although they are not eligible for state offices. Nine counties elected women treasurers, three selected women as public administrators and one a recorder of deeds.

Ten women were elected to office in Michigan, including one state senator, but perhaps the most unique selections were those of Mrs. Estelle K. Gates and Mrs. Jane Johnson, both of whom succeed their husbands as sheriff. Mrs. Gates takes an active part in church and club work of Honor, county seat of Benzie county, and has three children and six grandchildren. Mrs. Johnson, who is 65 years old, says she is confident she can arrest any "bad man" who violates the law in Roscommon county. She will appoint her husband a deputy and aside from caring for the prisoners of the county jail, will also look after her three children.

Miss Alice Sampson, for ten years clerk in the county grain commissioner's office at Hillsdale, Mich., barely defeated her employer for the position at the November election.

Mrs. Eva M. Hamilton, the first woman to sit in the Michigan state senate, is 40 years old and a former school teacher. She is from Grand Rapids, where she is known as "The Moths of City Markets," having conceived and persuaded the city council to adopt a plan by which the farmers could sell their produce direct to consumers.

Three county treasurers, two registers of deeds and one county clerk elected in Michigan in November are women.

Oklahoma gave fifteen women distinctly prominent positions while she was about it. Aside from sending Miss Robertson to Congress, a state senator, Mrs. Lamar Looney, and a state representative, Mrs. Bessie S. McColgin, were selected by the Oklahoma voters. Mrs. Lamar Looney, a widow and mother of five children, held the county clerkship of Greer county for four years, and in addition, managed a 160-acre farm, educated her children and succeeded in defeating her male opponent in the senatorial race by more than a two to one majority. Greer county also decided to have women as county clerk, county assessor, court clerk and county treasurer.

Mrs. McColgin, who comes from Roger Mills county, has gained a reputation as a capable business woman as a result of association with her husband in telephone line operation.

Miss Annie Webb Blanton was re-elected state superintendent of public instruction in Texas.

Kansas also re-elected a woman as state superintendent of public instruction. Miss Lorraine Elizabeth Wooster, of Salina. She has several degrees and was admitted to the Kansas bar. Miss Wooster is the author of a number of text books and attracted considerable attention by her anti-tobacco campaign in which she advocated dismissal of any men instructors who used tobacco in any form.

Four women legislators, all elected to the lower houses will sit in the Kansas legislature. Mrs. Minnie Grinstead, of Seward county, was re-elected; the others are serving their first terms. They are:

Miss Nellie Cline, of Larned, elected from Pawnee county on the Democratic ticket, although the county went Republican by over 1,000 plurality. She is a law partner of her father, having been admitted to the bar in 1912.

Mrs. Minnie Minnich, of Wellington, wife of a locomotive engineer, says she "got into politics to help defeat proposed compulsory military training." She lost a husband in World War.

Mrs. Ida M. Wall, of Lawrence, was formerly a member of the Kansas Federation of Women.

and has been a leader in state and local civic movements.

Miss Florence E. Allen, with nine men candidates opposing her, was elected common pleas judge of Cuyahoga county, Ohio. She is 35 years old and has been a newspaper woman, law student and assistant county prosecutor since 1906. Miss Allen was admitted to the Ohio bar in 1914 and has practiced in Cleveland since then. Mrs. A. N. Norton, 35, was elected probate judge of Lake county, Ohio, after serving as deputy clerk for 17 years. Mrs. Norton defeated Homer Harper, the prosecuting attorney for Lake county, by 2,500 plurality for the office. Mrs. Mary K. Davey was elected prosecuting attorney of Hocking county, Ohio.

The first woman to sit in the Indiana House of Representatives will be Mrs. Julia D. Nelson, of Muncie.

She was the only woman elected to a state office last November. Mrs. Nelson is the wife of a Muncie newspaper man.

THE BEST PIECE OF BEEF EVER RAISED

Here is the grand champion steer of all time and exhibited at the International Livestock Exposition at Chicago. He was bred, fed and exhibited by Purdue University of Lafayette, Ind. The judges pronounced him to be the most perfect steer ever shown in 30 years. He weighs 1365 pounds and was sold to Wilson & Co. for $1.75 a pound, or $2380. The man holding the steer is J. S. Douglas, herdsman. He has had charge and actually done the feeding of the Purdue steers for a number of years, three of which have won grand championships in the last four years.

MRS. M'SWINEY IN NEW STUDIO POSE

Mrs. Muriel Mac Swiney, who was exclusively posed photograph of the late hunger strike leader of Cork, who came to this country to testify before the United States American committee of 1919, is shown in a new studio pose. She is a law partner of her father, having been admitted to the bar in 1912.
